LACA Apprentice/Trainee Award 2019

The apprentice/trainee of the year award will be presented to an individual who, in the view of judges, has successfully carried out a recognised training course or programme. The nominee will have to illustrate what the impact of the training outcomes are following the programme and how the learning has been successfully implemented and embraced by colleagues, the workplace and ultimately improving client satisfaction.

The winning individual will receive a framed certificate, trophy and cheque for £500

Training has always been recognised as critical by LACA as the basis of a successful organisation which can demonstrate that an effective training programme is available to staff to enable their development within the workplace, industry and ultimately to further their career.

The introduction of the Apprenticeship Levy by the Government has enabled any team member to consider their own personal development and career path. This award applies to any member of staff employed within the school catering industry.

Submission requirements

- Up to a maximum of 1000 words (word count to be shown)
- No more than 6 pictures or graphics
- Support information not to exceed 6 x A4 sheets and to include evidence of client surveys, staff surveys or client feedback
- Where possible please provide a copy submission on memory stick
- Digital photograph of the nominated person
- 50 word overview of the entry

Judging criteria

Marks will be given for each element of the criteria identified above and with compliance to the submission requirements.

2018 Winner

Roll of Honour

2018 Stephen Tomlinson,
Absolutely Catering

LACA Catering Business of the Year 2019

Sponsored by Hobart (UK)

This award aims to give recognition to a Catering Team or Organisation, which has made an outstanding contribution to catering for schools in their local area.

The winning catering management team will receive a trophy, framed certificate and a cheque for £500.

The winning team will have demonstrated a high level of management skill, initiative, and commitment in devising and implementing a business initiative or strategy, which has brought about a positive change or improvement in their food service across their area of operations.

The winning team will have demonstrated an energetic and imaginative approach to its work as well as illustrating active involvement of staff in the successful development and introduction of change.

Whilst judges will be looking for originality and creativity, other factors contributing to achieving a successful outcome will be taken into account. These will include areas such as staff engagement, an affinity with the customer profile and overcoming current financial challenges together with a proven track record in meeting business targets.

Exemplary people management and teamwork across all staffing levels will have ensured that not only were business objectives met and strategies successfully implemented but the results will show how the business has moved forward year on year.

Evidence of community partnerships and how they worked together with any other relevant awards or accreditations received may be included in the submission.

Submission requirements

- Up to a maximum of 1000 words (word count to be shown)
- Two letters of support
- No more than 6 pictures or graphics
- Support information not to exceed 6 x A4 sheets

LACA Education Catering Marketing Award 2019

Sponsored by Elygra Marketing Services

Marketing Services, Imagery & Creativity

Effective marketing is an important function in any organisation's success and this is certainly true within the school catering industry. UIFSM provides a great platform to introduce new customers to the service and most junior and secondary schools have an opportunity to increase meal uptake. Marketing practices can be used to support school caterers in many ways.

Winners will receive a trophy, a framed certificate and a cheque for £500

Please answer the questions below and ensure that you comply with the submission requirements.

1. What were your key marketing objectives during 2018/19 and how did you perform against the 'plan'?
2. What did you do to maximise meal uptake?
3. How did you maximise PR opportunities and how did this support LACA's aims to promote all that is great about school meals?
4. What role, if any, did National School Meals Week play in your marketing plan for 2018?

Entries should show:

- the marketing strategies/techniques used to meet objectives, giving key data to support your results and conclusions
- what you actually did, highlight successes and lessons learnt
- the effect the marketing has had on uptake/perception or addressed any other aims and objectives
- if/how you promoted your service during the year either locally or by supporting any national initiatives

The judges will assess entries based on the above criteria and submissions should meet the following requirements.

Submission requirement:

- Up to a maximum of 1000 words on paper (word count must be shown)
- Up to maximum of 6 photographs or graphics may be included within the submission
- Support material not to exceed 6 x A4 sheets
- A single video is allowed as support information
- Where possible, please submit a copy of your total submission on memory stick
- Digital photograph of the nominated team
- 50 word overview of the entry

The Nan Berger Memorial Award 2019

Sponsored by Civica

This award is in recognition of Nan Berger and of her exemplary work in the field of innovation, accreditation and/or collaboration which has led to a successful result either with increased meal uptake or raising the profile of the school catering service.

The winner will receive a trophy, framed certificate and a cheque for £500.

What has an individual or team achieved that is different and makes them stand out from the rest? We are looking for innovative ideas that have been introduced and may include collaboration/partnership working, which has helped to achieve business objectives and in addition raised the profile of the school catering service.

The nomination will have to demonstrate how this has impacted on increased sales and/or helped to achieve a specific accreditation (ie FFL, ISO, IIP etc)

Submission requirements

- Up to a maximum of 1000 words (word count to be shown)
- No more than 6 pictures or graphics
- Support material not to exceed 6 x A4 sheets
- Where possible please provide a copy submission on memory stick
- Digital photograph of the nominated person/team
- 50 word overview of the entry

Nan Berger OBE FIOH (1914-1998)

As an appreciation of Nan and her commitment to LACA and the school meals service, the LACA National Board felt it appropriate that the membership of LACA had a greater understanding of how she played a key role in our transition and shared our ambitions to see the school meal service thrive.

Nan worked for many years in association with the IOH and was a founder member of LACA. Nan had a great dedication to the cause of nutritious school meals for all pupils, and in 1990 published a book on the service, setting out the complete history, how it was formed from the early days of temporary kitchens and the structures and economics of school meals. As an editor she also enabled our first handbook to be published. Nan received an OBE in 1948 for the work she did on behalf of the government in the statistics department of the Ministry of Fuel and Power.

Marks will be given for each element of the criteria identified above and with compliance to the submission requirements.

Roger Davis Outstanding Achievement Award 2019

This prestigious award represents the highest accolade that can be bestowed upon an individual within education catering. It is awarded to the person who has, above all others, demonstrated outstanding levels of service and commitment and made an enormous contribution to local authority catering.

The winner will receive a trophy, framed certificate and a cheque for £500.

The recipient of this award will have exceptional leadership qualities and the respect and admiration of colleagues from across the industry. The individual will have sound business acumen, extensive experience in his or her field, a reputation for sharp commercial judgement and impressive personal abilities.

The winner of this award may have successfully overseen or steered his or her organisation through a major industry change, a milestone event or introduced new techniques, policies or strategies which have taken their business to new heights of growth, profitability and success. He or she will have displayed an astute sense of people management which has motivated and inspired staff regardless of changing or challenging business circumstances.

This category is open for individuals to not only nominate colleagues they believe are worthy of being presented with this award but to put themselves forward if they feel that their work or achievements should be considered.

Submission requirements

- Up to a maximum of 1000 words (word count to be shown)
- Support material not to exceed 6 x A4 sheets
- Where possible please provide a copy submission on memory stick
- Digital photograph of the nominee

LACA Self-Delivered/In-House Catering Operation 2019

This award aims to give recognition to a catering team/operation which is managed in-house and which has made a significant contribution to the health and wellbeing of its customers, raising the profile and the importance of education catering within the school and local community.

The winner will receive a trophy, a framed certificate, a cheque for £500 plus one year's LACA membership

The winning team/operation will have demonstrated a high level of enthusiasm, commitment and passion for the catering service and be able to prove what extra steps have been taken to engage the school, teachers and wider community in sharing the focus on the importance of healthy nutritious meals, education and exercise.

The judges will be looking for examples of creativity and collaboration where engagement of the catering staff, pupils, teachers, parents and/or community all come together to share the same ethos which can be reflected and evidenced in either the increased uptake of school meals/services and/or the improved satisfaction rates through customer feedback.

The winning team/operation will need to demonstrate the unique nature of their service and how it stands out from the rest. The judges will need to see a sample menu that demonstrates creativity and skill, utilising seasonal foods and/or foods grown within the school grounds. In addition the judges will be looking to see how special diets are catered for through health or religious requirements.

This high profile award is open to self operated catering units within a standard nursery, primary, secondary or academy educational establishment. This award is open to entry from all schools not just LACA members. Shortlisted schools in this award category will be given one year's membership of LACA as part of their prize.

LACA Unsung Hero Award 2019

This award is looking to celebrate those unsung heroes within the school catering industry. We are encouraging anyone who has seen amazing dedication, or who has witnessed someone go above and beyond in their role, to send in their nominations for the Unsung Hero Award.

The winner will receive a trophy, framed certificate and a cheque for £500.

The recipient of this award will have demonstrated a unique contribution to the school catering industry, whether this individual works within the school, is a supporter of school meals or provides or supplies to the industry.

The consequences or outcomes of this individual's contribution will have demonstrated added value, new initiatives or a unique situation that benefited the school catering service in some way.

This award is about raising the profile of an individual who under normal circumstances would go unrecognised.

Submission requirements:

- Up to a maximum of 1000 words (word count to be shown)
- Support material not to exceed 4 x A4 sheets, which should include two or more independent testimonials that could come from a recipient of a school meal, parent, teacher, co-worker or catering manager. To also include a maximum of 6 supporting images.
- Where possible please provide a copy of the entry on memory stick

LACA Outstanding Supplier of the Year Award 2019

This award is in recognition of a LACA Partner or Associate Member who has consistently maintained the highest level of support and service excellence to the education catering sector.

The winner will receive a trophy and a framed certificate.

The winning supplier will not only have demonstrated a fundamental appreciation of the requirements of local authority catering and exceptional commitment but a significant degree of loyalty, active involvement and an immeasurable contribution to the future development and growth of education catering.

The activities of a key member of the organisation may be equally considered suitable criteria for this award, through individual support to local authority catering above and beyond their job role.

The winning supplier may be a dynamic force in the market place that regularly handles challenges with positive and workable solutions. Other winning attributes to be considered would be a friendly, helpful sales team, excellent customer service and efficient business sales and distribution systems.

This award is open for school meal providers to nominate a supplier/manufacturer company or one of its departments, divisions or individual employees. The category is also open to suppliers and manufacturers themselves to put forward their own company, a department or an individual for consideration.

- LACA Outstanding Supplier of the Year Award 2019

The judging process:

- Each award is shortlisted by two members of LACA's National Steering Group, for which their own authority has not participated.
- The first check is against the Submission Requirements – if an entry is non-compliant at this stage it is eliminated from the process.
- Each compliant entry is then read and judged against the criteria outlined in the award. The criteria are then weighed and scores given with comments made regarding the submission.
- At the second stage of judging the sponsor of the award will judge the top three scored entries using the same approach as in the first stage. The winner will then be determined by the highest score achieved.

When making a nomination it is important that you:

- Complete the entry form carefully and correctly for each entry
- Read the submission requirements carefully and ensure that these are fully complied with
