Judith Gregory, LACA National Chair says:

This showcase event which starts with our school chefs competing in their own regional cook offs, with the regional winners joining the final competition live at the Main Event in July 2025.

It is an amazing experience for all those that take part, enabling our amazing staff to showcase their incredible talent and creativity. Participants are able to meet and network with school chefs from across the country at both the regional and national stage, and it's the perfect opportunity to demonstrate their passion and professionalism. I can't wait to follow the action from the regional heats through to the Main Event Final.

Best of luck to you all

Sadia Allam, Foodservice Channel Controller at Premier Foods says: "LACA School Chef of the Year has been one of the highlights of the school catering calendar for many years and so we are excited that Bisto is sponsoring the event again this year.

We'll be supporting and celebrating the chefs who get involved throughout the process and can't wait to be part of the judging panel to help find the next star of school meals. The Premier Foods foodservice team work with chefs across the UK and we'll be encouraging as many as possible to get involved and submit an entry.
