

LACA AUTUMN BUSINESS SEMINAR
Friday 16th November 2018
Stratford Manor Hotel

SEMINAR PROGRAMME

- 09.00 Arrival, registration and coffee
- 09.30 Welcome: Neil Porter, Chair of Events Group, LACA Ltd
Aims of the day: Michael Hales, LACA National Chair
- 09.40 Childhood Obesity policy updates: Katie Shore,
Childhood Obesity and School Food Team, Department for Education
- 10.10 Childhood Obesity policy Q & A: with Katie Shore, Michael Hales & Lee Petar, Oakhill
- 10.40 Host a School Chef – Nigel Argyle presents an overview of this year's Host a School Chef programme and plans for 2019
- 10.50 National School Meals Week (NSMW) 2018:- Nigel Argyle will update delegates on all the action from this year's National School Meals Week as it celebrates its 25th Anniversary.
- 11.10 Coffee Break
- 11.40 LACA Update: Michael Hales, LACA National Chair and presentation of Honorary Membership certificate to Kath Hayton
- 12.00 Research: Potential Impact of Brexit on School Meals - Michael Nelson, Director, PHN Research Ltd
- 12.30 Case Study 1: Steve Fowell, former SCOTY finalist aka The School Chef talks about his newest role teaching cookery to kids and their parents both in person and via his online tutorials and recently published cookbook, Family Cooking with the School Chef.
- 13.00 Case Study 2: Steve Kemp of ISS will share details of FEED - Feeding Excellence Every Day – an approach for school pupils which focuses on making every service moment at lunch as good as it can be starting with looking at the dining environment through the eyes of pupils. Through creating excellent service moments, ISS hope to see more children eating healthy lunches and returning to lessons content and ready to learn.
- 13.30 Lunch and depart

Click here to book your place at the National Seminar